Handwriting Practice

Practice your handwriting by tracing the sentence below. Then use the blank lines to write the sentence on your own.

I can forsake my sins and repent like Corianton.

And now the Spirit of the Lord doth say unto me:
Command thy children to do good, lest they lead away the hearts of many people to destruction;

therefore I command you, my son, in the fear of God, that ye refrain from your iniquities;

Repentance

That ye turn to the Lord with all your mind, might, and strength; that ye lead away the hearts of no more to do wickedly;

but rather return unto them, and acknowledge your faults
and that wrong which ye have done.

Instructions: Solve this word sudoku puzzle the same way that you’d solve a numeric sudoku. Each of the bold words in the scripture below is found once in every row, column and 3×3 box.

Alma 39:12–14

And now the Spirit of the Lord doth say unto me: Command thy children to do good, lest they lead away the hearts of many people to destruction; therefore I command you, my son, in the fear of God, that ye refrain from your iniquities;

That ye turn to the Lord with all your mind, might, and strength; that ye lead away the hearts of no more to do wickedly; but rather return unto them, and acknowledge your faults and that wrong which ye have done.

Seek not after riches nor the vain things of this world; for behold, you cannot carry them with you.
