Christmas

“He Shall Come into the World to Redeem His People”

Fill in the Blank

For we labor diligently to _____, to persuade our children, and also our _____, to _____ in _____, and to be reconciled to God; for we know that it is by _____ that we are saved, after all we can do. And we _____ of Christ, we _____ in Christ, we _____ of Christ, we _____ of Christ, and we write according to our prophecies, that our _____ may know to what _____ they may look for a _____ of their sins.

Handwriting Practice

Practice your handwriting by tracing the sentence below. Then use the blank lines to write the sentence on your own.

Jesus Christ was born to be my Savior.

Happy Christmas! These children invited some friends to help act out a nativity scene. Can you find the hidden objects?

Instructions: Solve this word sudoku puzzle the same way that you’d solve a numeric sudoku. Each of the bold words in the scripture below is found once in every row, column and 3×3 box.

Alma 7:11–12

And he shall go forth, suffering pains and afflictions and temptations of every kind; and this that the word might be fulfilled which saith he will take upon him the pains and the sicknesses of his people.

And he will take upon him death, that he may loose the bands of death which bind his people; and he will take upon him their infirmities, that his bowels may be filled with mercy, according to the flesh, that he may know according to the flesh how to succor his people according to their infirmities.
